

The next regular meeting of the PSC will be Thursday, February 13, 1964 at the Northside Branch of the Hamilton National Bank.

The program will consist of a Shooting Session. Our models will be ourselves. Come dressed as you wish, but come dressed. Now would be the time to wear that hat you couldn't resist in Guatemala or Japan, or to dust out the fish creel and the waders, or to take down the hunting jacket and the gun, or whatever else your imagination is suggesting right now. That is why this notice is a little earlier this month - to give your ideas time to hatch. Lights, backgrounds, etc. will be on hand - just you bring your props and your camera and your pleasant smile.

The Club wishes to express thanks to Hubert Stagmeier for making the Cecil Atwater lectures available. All who attended have commented on the excellence of the talks. If you did not attend, you missed an excellent opportunity to learn more about your hobby!

Dues -- Have you paid yours?

The picture assignment due at the March meeting is "PORTRAITS". At the shooting session you will have a chance to make some pictures for this competition. Slides and pictures from previous shooting sessions have been prize winners.
