

The November meeting of the Photographic Society of Chattanooga will be held on Thursday, November 11, 1965 at 7:45 P.M. at the Northside Branch, Hamilton National Bank.

YOU are the program (or rather, your pictures). Everyone is to bring 10 of their best vacation slides. You will be able to see and enjoy not only a variety of vacation spots, but also a variety of photographic possibilities. We can get a lot of ideas from each others slides.

There will also be a technical session. R. T. Smith will discuss "The Importance of Camera Steadiness and How to Achieve It". This is important to every camera user from box brownie to Nikon. If you come and listen carefully to Bob's talk, you should be able to improve your pictures!

The Door Prize for the November meeting is being furnished by CLYDE BAKER, manager of the photographic department of Sears Roebuck & Co.
