

The February meeting of the PSC will be held Thursday, February 10, 1966 at the BRAINERD BRANCH, AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK, 3535 Brainerd Road at 7:45 PM.

Mr. Joseph C. Fleming, well-known Chattanooga amateur photographer, will present in slides, music, and sound, "Mexico 1965". From Laredo through Monterrey, Saltillo, San Louis Potosi, Guanajuato - where the cathedral is mortared with silver dust and wine - to Mexico City. We'll see a bull fight in the largest bull ring in the world; a ballet at the Palace of Fine Arts; the Floating Gardens of Xochimilco - Mexico's Venice; the largest cathedral in the Republic - built on the same site of the original Aztec temple; Chapultepec Castle, where Maximilian and Carlotta lived; spectacular mountain scenery viewed from along the Pan American Highway; Taxco, the incomparable city and - - - much, much more.

Amateur Mr. Fleming has produced a very professional travelogue of high artistry and compelling interest throughout. If you've ever been to Mexico, or ever plan to go - Don't Miss It. Come early for a good seat.

At the January meeting shooting session we had a wonderful crowd and a good time. Many thanks go to our models Jenifer and Joyce Leach - delightful grand daughters of Mr. and Mrs. RAY PARKS; lovely Miss Joy HOLCOMBE - daughter of COLLINS and MARGUARITE; and Mr. and Mrs. David Kammer. Dave was the "Scotsman" who Actually got what sounded like real Music from his bagpipe. It was all very colorful and very tuneful.

DAVE DeLANY reminds us that the Portrait assigned contest entries are due at the March meeting. Four B & W prints, four color prints, and four slides can be accepted from each member.

The DOOR PRIZE for this February meeting is being presented by Mr. LESTER COHN of VIOLET CAMERA SHOPS.

Again, REFRESHMENTS will be served at this meeting.

REMEMBER it is at the BRAINERD BRANCH, AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK.
