

The March meeting of the PSC will be held Thursday, March 9, 1967 at the Brainerd Branch, American National Bank, 3535 Brainerd Road.

Program Chairman RUSSELL C. MERRIAM has announced that this will be a Barter - Swap - Bargain Session. This is an opportunity to sell your surplus equipment and to purchase or exchange what you have for used items you really want. Bring in your cameras, projectors, meters, movie equipment, dark room gear and supplies you no longer find a need for and sell them or trade them for more useful items. This is the opportunity of the year to help your photographic buddies.

Also a feature of this meeting will be the receipt of your entries for the contest, "The Eyes Have It". GENE HAYES, Contest Chairman, will welcome your slides and prints which may be of most any size or description.

Refreshments will be served throughout the evening.

We are very pleased to welcome new members -

Mr and Mrs. E. LEE GRIGGS, JR. (LILA)

BOB SMITH reminds us that the Seventeenth Annual Spring Wildflower Pilgrimage will be held April 27, 28, 29 at Gatlinburg, Tennessee. Motorcades, trail hikes and photographic tours under expert guidance will be available. In the evenings there will be slide shows and socials.

Remember our meeting place is Brainerd Branch, American National Bank,
Thursday, March 9th. 7:45 PM REFRESHMENTS
