

The April meeting of the PSC will be held WEDNESDAY April 12, 1967 at the Brainerd Branch, American National Bank, 3535 Brainerd Road at 7:45 PM. Please note this change from our regular meeting day, having been caused by an emergency condition beyond our control.

Our program for this meeting is particularly timely and excitingly interesting. Sgt. Thomas E. Campbell of Chattanooga has been in Viet Nam for one year with the A team of the U. S. Special Armed Forces. He wears the Green Beret. He also is entitled to wear the Purple Heart with four clusters. Recently home on a thirty day furlough, he came back with some 5,000 feet of 8mm movie film. Sgt. Campbell has now returned to Viet Nam; but his uncle, MR. WALTER J. TRAVIS, will present and narrate a one hour color documentary edited from some of Sgt. Campbell's film.

This presentation will describe the life and people of Viet Nam with no battle scenes.

Here is a rare opportunity for us to see Viet Nam in close-up intimacy and with restrictionless candor.

Guests are welcome.
