

The November meeting of the Photographic Society of Chattanooga will be held Thursday, November 9, 1967 at the Northside Branch of the Hamilton National Bank, 7:45 P.M.

A Fellow-member R. T. SMITH will speak on "Black and White Photography". BOB is, without qualification, one of this area's finest photographers. He is not only an expert in things photographic, but his skill is tethered to his modesty. A hallmark of a good teacher. In this day of the color slide, R. T. will explain the advantages, the pleasures, and the relative costs in shooting "black and white".

B On Sunday October 22, the PSC had a wonderful field trip to the Carl L. Travis farm. This November meeting is the meeting at which your handiwork of the farm will be shown and projected. Bring in as many of your good, better, or best shots as you wish to compare with the other good, better, or ---- shots of the others. If you did not make the Travis Farm Trip, you missed a good one. But, not to make you feel any worse, you may bring in any other fall color pictures or farm scenes or farm animals shot elsewhere. Pictures that is.

C NORA TOWNSEND, Hospitality Committee, reports that the Christmas Party plans are progressing great guns and excitement is brewing. The Date: Thursday, December 14. The Place: Holiday Inn Golden Gateway. The Price: Within Reason. More details later. For now just keep the date and the place in mind.
